Teacher- Job Description Middle School Content Teacher- English Language Arts, Math, Science and Social Studies

Lafayette Preparatory Academy, a public charter school, opened in the fall of 2013 initially as a K-2 charter school with 74 students and will grow with its students through 8th grade. Our mission is to be a community that prepares all students for academic and collegiate success and equips them to enter the world as active, responsible, and involved citizens and leaders. We utilize a rigorous academic model to implement research-proven curriculum focused on critical thinking and problem-based inquiry. As a community school, serving the needs of students from Downtown/Near Southside neighborhoods, LPA will support social and economic growth and sustainability in the city of St. Louis.

Teaching at Lafayette Preparatory Academy:

Lafayette Preparatory Academy seeks passionate educators and relentless over-achievers who have proven to be ambitious self-starters and operate with both a sense of urgency and responsibility. Teaching at Lafayette Preparatory Academy is ideal for an educator with deep passion for instruction and who is eager to participate in a collaborative coaching method in order to perfect his/her craft. In addition to daily planning time and weekly collaborative development after school, teachers will receive regular advice, support, guidance, and feedback from supportive leaders.

Teachers will also participate in an extensive on-boarding process during their first year at LPA that will begin in mid-July and last for four to five weeks. Each subsequent year, teachers participate in Professional Learning Institute which begins at the end of July every year.

LPA's middle school will eventually support students in 5th through 8th grade with two content teachers per core subject (ELA, Math, Science and Social Studies). In the 2018-2019 school year, LPA will have two classes of 5th graders, one class of 6th graders and one class of 7th graders. These four classes of students are supported by four content teachers (1 ELA, 1 Math, 1 Science and 1 Social Studies).

All of the teachers at LPA utilize backwards design to create and implement rigorous learning experiences that engage critical thinking while also encouraging the development of content knowledge and skills needed for success. Teachers employ Project-Based Learning and Design Thinking methodologies to encourage robust learning for all students. Additionally, LPA teachers are driven to help their students succeed. They embrace growth mindset for themselves and encourage and develop it with their students.

Specific Responsibilities:

We are seeking candidates interested in building the LPA middle school program and being part of our founding team. This includes program (content and curriculum) and operations (parent communication procedures, dismissal process, cell phone policies, etc.) Teachers at LPA are proven professionals who guide every element of the school. Teachers with a desire to plan content and develop systems from the ground up will be successful in our growing school.

ELA Teacher- The ELA teacher at LPA is responsible for planning standards-aligned content for 5th-7th grade students at LPA. Teachers utilize the backwards planning method to create rigorous lessons that capitalize on Design Thinking. The ELA teacher will create content to instruct students in reading and writing (including grammar). Additionally, the ELA teacher will coordinate with team members to find alignment and connection between content areas.

Math Teacher- The Math teacher at LPA is responsible for planning standards-aligned content for 5th-7th grade students at LPA as connected with Singapore Math. Teachers utilize the backwards planning method to create rigorous lessons that capitalize on Design Thinking. In addition, the Math teacher will begin design work on a long-term scope and sequence for the math program for all middle schoolers. This person will determine pacing and eligibility to take Algebra and other advanced courses. Additionally, the math teacher will coordinate with team members to find alignment and connection between content areas.

Science Teacher- The Science teacher at LPA is responsible for planning standards-aligned content for 5th-7th grade students at LPA. Teachers utilize the backwards planning method to create rigorous lessons that capitalize on Design Thinking. Science instruction should be hands-on and focused on experimentation. The Science teacher will coordinate with team members to find alignment and connection between content areas. Additionally, the Science teacher will partner with the Social Studies teacher to design and teach the Investigations class. (See more information below.)

Social Studies Teacher- The Social Studies teacher at LPA is responsible for planning standards-aligned content for 5th-7th grade students at LPA. Teachers utilize the backwards planning method to create rigorous lessons that capitalize on Design Thinking. The Social Studies teacher will coordinate with team members to find alignment and connection between content areas. Additionally the Social Studies teacher will partner with the Science teacher to design and teach the Investigations class. (See more information below.) The Social Studies content at LPA is designed entirely in-house and aligns to our big picture mission of community. In fifth and sixth grades, students study different moments in United States history from different points of a view. A strong candidate will feel confident in designing learning experiences that encourage student discovery of US history, to form connections to modern day culture and to question information presented to them. This course of study should be designed to question the traditional presentation of history and present historical perspective through a culturally responsive lens. A successful candidate will find creative ways to present information from multiple perspectives and allow students to debate history while uncovering their own beliefs, values and biases. Additionally, the Social Studies teacher will design 7th grade content as aligned to state standards in preparation for state tests.

Investigations- Another part of the LPA middle school program is the development of the Investigations program. Investigations is an interdisciplinary block designed to engage students in an opportunity to innovate and explore content and understandings through inquiry, creativity and problem-solving. Throughout their time at LPA, students are guided through inquiry-based studies to build deeper understanding incorporating multiple content areas. While core content will continue to be a critical component of learning at LPA, the Investigations block in middle school will encourage students to apply concepts through innovative lenses. Students will have the opportunity to participate in the design of their learning, pulling in concepts from each area to support a robust, dynamic learning experience. During this block, students will lead their learning, as multiple teachers support and facilitate the learning. Further, each trimester we will offer other special exploration areas such as drama, speech, debate, architecture, agriculture, etc.
